5. Presentation, discussion, and possible motion regarding the following (10 min):
Based on crime statistics, negative resident and business proprietor feedback, and the overall lack of action from our elected leaders, the Studio City Neighborhood Council is deeply concerned regarding the direction of public safety in the East Valley. The City of Los Angeles is inadequately protecting local stakeholders as LAPD resources are not sufficiently being directed to our local police divisions; thus, resulting in a lack of suitable patrol and an increase in violent crime:
 - Violent Crime is up +6.9% in North Hollywood division while city wide it is down -2.5%
 - Aggravated Assault is up +10.8% in North Hollywood division and up while city wide it is down -0.6%
 - Robbery has increased +6.5% in North Hollywood division while city wide it is down -3.5%
 - "Calls for Service" in the North Hollywood bureau have increased +9.1% YTD (this % increase is above both the Valley bureau and city wide average)
 (Crime stats presented are between 1/1/18 to 9/15/18 vs. comparable 2017 period)

Effective immediately, we demand suitable funding, resources, and appropriate personnel allocation for the North Hollywood and Van Nuys police divisions.

For further details, please find an Aug 2018 report prepared by the Studio City Neighborhood Council Public Safety Committee here

6. Presentation, discussion, and possible motion regarding the following (10 min):

In the event of a major Los Angeles emergency, such as a high-level natural disaster, the response timing of first-responders will be essential. Therefore, the Studio City Neighborhood Council recommends the City of Los Angeles to develop and offer an incentive program to first-responders, including law enforcement, fire fighters and EMT leaders for residing within the city.

7. Initial update with respect to Resilience Los Angeles plan by Rachel Tobias (5 min)
 - a. Info on the Resilience Los Angeles initiative can be found here
