

What if there was a place
where you could meet
a pretty cool cop
from the LAPD's Bomb Squad, munch some cookies and
help build a better community?
Oh, wait, there is...

Join us for the quarterly meeting of East Valley PALS
at 6:30 PM on Thursday, September 10 in the Executive Conference Center at PINZ Bowling Center, located at 12655 Ventura Boulevard in Studio City. Parking is free.

Meet one of the steely-nerved officers from the LAPD's Bomb Squad and learn about the training, equipment and the courage needed to take on some of law enforcement's most dangerous challenges. You'll hear behind-the-scenes stories you won't get from the media.

You'll also have a chance to hear about some of the ways East Valley PALS works to build a better community and be on hand as we honor the North Hollywood Division's Officers of the Quarter.

For more information, call the North Hollywood Division Community Relations Office at 818.754.8470 or the PALS hotline at 818.754.8477.
